Electronic Reporting System

In late 2010, the IPHC instituted a new reporting system for Churches and Ministers/Clergy. As of June 30, 2014, a good number of churches and clergy have begun using the new computer, web-based reporting system for their monthly reporting and giving commitments to the IPHC. No software is required to be loaded and the new system has won praise from the majority of participants.

To begin reporting online, please send an email to Conference Secretary-Treasurer Oris Hubbard at ohubbard@nciphc.com. He will contact you and activate you or your church in the system.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

QUADRENNIAL CONFERENCE AUGUST 1, 2014

Mr. Chairman, Conference Council, Ministers, Church Delegates and guests of the 2014 Quadrennial Conference.

I report to you today on the state of the North Carolina Conference, the state of my personal relationship with Jesus Christ and my family.

I, first, would like to explain the decision that Regenia and I have come to relative to not being available for another term as Superintendent of the Conference. This has been the general plan from the beginning that I would finish out Bro. Thompsons' term and serve another term if elected to do so in 2010. We have reached that milestone and feel confident in our spirit that the time has come to transition to the next season in our lives.

This Quadrennium, we as a Council, have focused on several areas that would strengthen the conference for the future.

(1) Our first goal was to revitalize plateaued and declining churches. Thirty-seven (37 %) percent of our churches are stronger than they were 4 years ago. My goal was to have 50 % of our churches stronger but, we missed it by 13%. We gave it a great effort and received excellent cooperation from our pastors and churches.

(2) Secondly, our goal was to plant new churches and transfer churches of like faith who are seeking a covering of ministry. We have received 32 new churches while transferring some of our Hispanic congregations that were located out of our region to our neighboring conferences. We have had to close a few churches that did not become healthy and vibrant for lack of people and resources.

(3) One of our challenges has been to stabilize the Conference budget so we could rebound from the national economic stresses of 2008-2009. Progress was made each year and the past two years we have operated with a budget in the black.

(4) We have led a major overhaul of the Retirement program that should strengthen the program's capacity to fulfill its promises to our retirees without draining conference revenues with ever-rising cost.

(5) We are presently working with the Securities Commission in Raleigh to bring our Loan Fund into total compliance with the State regulations for operating a Church Loan Fund. This will result in built-in safety features to our Investors that we believe will make the Fund an even greater instrument in the hands of God for building His Kingdom through the North Carolina Conference.

(6) During this quadrennium, we have licensed 54 ministers, ordained 28, and granted LCM credentials to 62 men and women in our local churches. You have reported to the conference office 17,032 conversions, over 2,100 to have experienced sanctification, 872 were filled with the Holy Spirit and 2,894 new members were added to our church membership. That represents 9.2% increase in new members, but the loss of membership through death, transfers and drop-outs counter most of that 9%. The average church will lose 3 – 5% of its membership per year through death, transfers and drop-outs. That fact demonstrates the importance of consistent growth in attendance and membership. I have enjoyed the ground breakings, note burnings, facility dedications and homecomings. It has been rewarding and fulfilling to walk with churches and ministers through the pastoral transitions and other major moments of their journey.

This has been a season of transitions. We have transitioned a new Superintendent, a new Assistant Superintendent, a new Secretary-Treasurer, a new Hispanic Director, a new African American Director, a new Archives Director, a new Minister's Wives Director and a new Women's Ministries Director. We have had three staff members to retire, two others to transfer to different jobs and one to move to another location, plus 132 pastoral changes.

The Lord has bailed us out in all of that personnel change by putting together an excellent team of leaders: Danny Nelson, Oris Hubbard, Jon Oliver, Fernando Angulo, Doug Bartlett, Dwight Dunning, Paul Evans, Linda Thomas, Ferrell Hardison, Janice Marshburn, Lydia Figueroa, Lydia Mills, Ronnie Basden, Gordon Knox, Kevin Robinson, Wiley Clark, Karen Lucas, Mark Lucas, Rose Hubbard, Lee Love, and Casey Strickland; our office staff: Sheila Oglesby, Ginger Wheeler, Nicole Turransky, Nicole Oliver, Karen Carter, Pablo Avila, and "my Regenia."

Thank you for everything you invested in conference work. You could not have been better in doing your part in the harvest.

I found a statement in preparing for the funeral of Bro. Jettie Parker that I have used many times because it is a reality for all of us. "Leaders always leave" and now it is our turn. We have been privileged to stand on the shoulders of giant saints and great leaders. We have helped rebuild several sections of Nehemiah's wall for the Kingdom's sake.

We have been honored far beyond my wildest dreams: to pastor my home church and be my parents' last pastor, to pastor the Mother Church of this denomination for 27 years, to serve on this conference board for 22 years, five as Superintendent; to serve 15 years on the Trustee Board of Holmes Bible College—five years as Chairman; to have Chaired the Falcon Children's Home Board for five years and spent five years on the Emmanuel College Trustee Board; to have had the honor of serving with the Council of Bishops of the General church and with the General Finance Committee for this denomination--this has been a journey of privilege and honor for me.

And then to have the greatest wife in the world to be by my side and the support of my two sons and twin daughters, the spouses and nine grandchildren, has made it all complete and a blessed journey.

THANK YOU for your confidence and cooperation as we labored in the fields together for our Lord and the unsaved for whom He died.

BLESSINGS FORWARD TO EACH OF YOU,

JIM WHITFIELD

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE
OF THE PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH, INC.
Inspirational Conference - August 3, 2013

MINUTES OF THE 102nd ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Enrollment and registration began at 8:30 a.m. followed by North Carolina Conference Superintendent, Bishop Jim Whitfield, opening the Conference at 9:00 a.m.

Brother Kevin Mooring led the congregation in singing "The Doxology" and "How Marvelous."

Bishop Jim Whitfield greeted the delegation and led in a prayer of praise. He then presented the presiding officer, Bishop Chris Thompson, IPHC Director of Evangelism USA and former N.C. Conference Superintendent, who greeted the delegation and called the meeting to order.

Bishop Thompson presented a devotional from Isaiah 54:2-3. A recent history of the Holy Spirit's direction for the IPHC has been:

- Mission 21 – I Corinthians 16:9 – "A great and effectual door"
- Relevant, Dynamic and Demonstrative – 2009 General Conference
- Live, Move, Be – Acts 17:28

God has given the IPHC Seven Core Values from these Isaiah verses and called us to be a "Place of Hope and People of Promise."

1) We prayerfully value Scripture
2) We prayerfully value Pentecost
3) We prayerfully value Holiness
4) We prayerfully value Christ's Kingdom
5) We prayerfully value Justice
6) We prayerfully value all Generations
7) We prayerfully value Generosity

2013 MEMOIRS REPORT

Philippians 1:3 - "I thank my God upon every remembrance of you"

Psalm 16:6 - "the lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; yea, I have a goodly heritage"

In the next few minutes we take the time to honor the memory of great men and women who served God and the North Carolina Conference faithfully. If we simply add up the years of their Christian profession and of their years of service to the North Carolina Conference, the numbers are impressive; however, only the Recorder of Heaven's record, God our Father, has the accurate record of all that was accomplished through the ministry of their lives. What a day that will be when the books are opened and the account is read.

REV. THOMAS HOWARD CONWAY

Rev. Conway was born on October 14, 1928 in Greenville, North Carolina to the late John Allen Sr. and Ethel Bell Hodges Conway and went to his reward on September 7, 2012. He accepted the Lord in 1941 at a cottage prayer meeting. Thomas attended Holmes Bible College, but due to the death of his father he had to leave to help with his family. He was married to Virginia Gray Little on December 25, 1948. He joined the United States Air force on September 1, 1951 and proudly served his country for 20 years retiring on June 30, 1971. He was a devoted man of God, a faithful husband and a loving father to his children.

Rev. Thomas Conway accepted the call to preach at the age of 16 and for almost 68 years was a minister of the Gospel. He would speak in cottage prayer meetings and loved helping the widows. In 1943 he received his Mission Workers License with the Pentecostal Holiness Church and became a Licensed Minister in 1963 and was Ordained in 1964. Throughout the years he pastored the following churches: The First Pentecostal Holiness Church in El Paso, Texas (1963-1965); Service Men's Work in Japan (1967-1968); Vacaville Pentecostal Holiness Church in California (1969-1971); Tampa First Pentecostal Holiness Church in Florida (1972-1977); and Carson Memorial Pentecostal Holiness Church in Greenville, NC (1982-1993). He served as a member of the following: Great Plains Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church in Texas, Church of God Service Men's Work in Yakoto, Japan, California Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, Florida Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, and North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church.

During his ministry he not only served as the Pastor, but was a Sunday School Teacher, Choir Director, Special Singer, Janitor, and Builder (remodeling every church he pastored), all while holding down a full time job, and being a faithful husband and father. He lived what he preached. You never heard him complain for he loved the Lord and, as Paul, he "Pressed toward the Mark of the High Calling". He was faithful to his Lord and Savior, was faithful to his mother, father, sisters, brothers, wife, and children. In addition to his parents, Rev. Conway was preceded in death by a brother, John A. Conway Jr. and a sister, Vivian Conway Brantley.

He is survived by his wife of 63 years, Virginia Little Conway; five children, Thomas H. APPRECIATION REPORT 2013

There is no accolade or recognition on this earth that will compare to hearing the words from the Lord Himself, "Well done, good and faithful servant" (Matthew 25:21, 23). In First Timothy 5:7 and Hebrews 13:17 it speaks of the church giving honor to those that lead and faithfully serve God and His Kingdom. Our prime objective today is to honor those that have served and are now retiring from many of their responsibilities in the North Carolina Conference. We pay tribute to their lives, ministries, and investments in the Kingdom of God. I know the Lord thanks you and the North Carolina Conference thanks you for your years of service to Christ's Kingdom. It is an honor and privilege to recognize you and your families for your sacrifice and dedication through the years. We speak with the Apostle Paul the words found in I Thessalonians 1:1b-3, "Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 2- We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers, 3- remembering without ceasing your work of faith, labor of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ in the sight of our God and Father." We honor you and bless you this day.

The Retired Ministers Fund Constitution of the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, Inc.

Preface

The North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church through the years has endeavored to provide a benefit package for its retired ministers. First, there was the "Provident Fund" which required the participants to contribute five dollars ($5.00) per year. Only a few ministers participated in the program.

In 1939, at the Annual Conference in Williamston, North Carolina, the conference changed the name of the Fund to the "Superannuate Fund." A percentage from the conference budget was allocated for retired ministers.

In the beginning, ministers were allowed to participate on a voluntary basis; but it soon became evident that the program must become mandatory in order for all ministers to receive benefits at retirement.

The name, Retired Ministers Fund, was adopted at the 2006 Quadrennial Conference held in Falcon, North Carolina.

From those small beginnings the Retired Ministers Fund has grown. It has continued to have a healthy build up of cash reserves and has provided a steady increase of benefits to its members.

The Retired Ministers Fund provides an excellent benefit for the minister. Most ministers will draw more in benefits in the first and second years of retirement than they paid into the program during all their active participating years.

It is very important for the minister to make full contribution each year or lose the benefit for that year. Each minister should adequately prepare for the retirement years. The retirement program of this conference is a vital part of this preparation.

I. RETIRED MINISTERS FUND

The following regulations determine the distribution of funds from the Retired Ministers Fund to qualifying ministers:

A. The Retired Ministers Fund shall be a part of the financial program of the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, Inc. and shall be for the benefit of:
   1. Participating Ministers and their spouses
   2. Spouses of deceased ministers

B. The Retired Ministers Fund shall be administered by the North Carolina Conference Executive Council, herein referred to as the "Administrators".

C. The North Carolina Conference financial records shall be the basis of verifying individual participation.

II. RESTRUCTURE

Based on an actuarial study conducted by consulting actuary, Stanley, Hunt, Dupree & Rhine of Greensboro, North Carolina in 2012, the North Carolina Conference Executive Council proposes to restructure the Retired Ministers' Fund (herein after also referred to as "Conference Retirement"), effective August 3, 2013, to bring about an eventual phase-out of the Fund, as follows:

A. That no new members will be accepted into Conference Retirement. We strongly encourage credentialed clergy of the North Carolina Conference to participate in the 403(b) program provided through the International Pentecostal Holiness Church.

B. The current benefit, at time of this restructuring on August 3, 2013, is $12.00 per qualifying service year for full-time service years and $9.00 per qualifying service year for part-time service years.

CURRENT MEMBERS:

A. Each member who was under age 50 as of December 31, 2012, will be dropped from Conference Retirement and receive a full refund of what they have contributed, plus 10% of the total contributed through December 31, 2012. This refund will be a full release by the member of any liability from the Retired Ministers' Fund and no future benefit will be paid. In the event that the minister is delinquent in tithing or a loan with the Ministerial and Church Extension Loan Fund, any refund due may be used to bring those commitments to current status as far as the refund will allow.

B. Each member who became a ministerial member of the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, Inc. after August 15, 2008, will be dropped from Conference Retirement and receive a full refund of what they have contributed, plus 10% of the total contributed through December 31, 2012. This refund will be a full release by the member of any liability from the Retired Ministers' Fund and no future benefit will be paid. In the event that the minister is delinquent in tithing or a loan with the Ministerial and Church Extension Loan Fund, any refund due may be used to bring those commitments to current status as far as the refund will allow.

C. Any member who has not contributed at least $500 to Conference Retirement during 2011 and 2012 combined is considered inactive and will be dropped from Conference Retirement. Inactive members will receive a full refund of what they have contributed, plus 10% of the total contributed through December 31, 2012. This refund will be a full release by the member of any liability from the Retired Ministers' Fund and no future benefit will be paid. In the event that the minister is delinquent in tithing or a loan with the Ministerial and Church Extension Loan Fund, any refund due may be used to bring those commitments to current status as far as the refund will allow.

D. Each member who was age 50 or older and has not begun drawing Conference Retirement benefits, as of December 31, 2012, will have three options:

1. Option #1: Withdraw from the program with a refund of their contributions plus 10% of the total contributed through December 31, 2012. This refund will be a full release by the member of any liability from the Retired Ministers' Fund and no future benefit will be paid. In the event that the minister is delinquent in tithing or a loan with the Ministerial and Church Extension Loan Fund, any refund due may be used to bring those commitments to current status as far as the refund will allow.
2. Option #2: Remain in the program and freeze their current number of service years effective August 30, 2013. No future contributions will be required. Upon official retirement, the member would draw benefit based on the number of service years as of August 30, 2013.
3. Option #3: Remain in the program and continue to accrue service years. Full-time service years will require a contribution of $600 per year and part-time service years will require a contribution of $450 per service year (full-time and part-time service years are defined elsewhere in this document). Should such member choosing Option #3 fail to make the required annual contribution by February 15th of the following year, such member will be considered to have elected Option #2 as of the end of the last year for which a timely contribution was made and will not be allowed to accrue additional years.

For members 50 or older, one of the three options above must be selected by September 30, 2013 on a form to be provided by the Conference accounting office. For those members requiring or requesting refund of contributions, funds will be refunded with 90 days of the Conference accounting office receiving the required option form.

CURRENT RETIRED MEMBERS AND BENEFICIARIES (SPOUSES OF DECEASED MINISTERS): Each retired minister or spouse currently receiving benefit would continue to draw their normal check.

A. Each member receiving refund should contact his/her personal tax advisor concerning tax consequences of this refund.
B. Each minister receiving refund will receive a 1099-INT by January 31, 2014 for the interest portion received.

Proposed that the Constitution and By-laws for the Retired Ministers Fund and those who remain members for the duration be as follows:

II. PERPETUATION

This fund shall be supported in the following ways:

A. The conference treasury by the payment of a percentage of clergy and church tithes. The percentage of this allocation will be set by the Conference Executive Council, based on projected income and expense in accordance with the Retired Ministers' Fund projected budget and noted in the appendix.
B. All Conference Ministers who continue to accrue service years in Conference Retirement shall pay dues according to Option #3 above ($600 per year for full-time status or $450 per year for part-time status). Local churches are encouraged to make this monthly payment a part of their Pastor's compensation package and contribute this for him or her.
C. Interest and/or dividends on investments from these funds.
D. Gifts, endowments, legacies, etc. That in conjunction with annual Retired Minister's Day, each church is encouraged to receive an offering, to assist in the expense of honoring retired ministers and surviving spouses of retired ministers.

E. A participating minister must pay 100% of the tithe on both secular and ministerial income into the North Carolina Conference treasury (as mandated in the IPHC Manual) in order to receive Conference Retirement benefits.

III. PARTICIPATION

A. Retirement: A minister who has reached age 65 with at least 15 years of service, full retirement age as defined by current Social Security rules, or has been approved for disability by the Social Security Administration shall be eligible upon request for retirement benefits. A minister with at least 20 years of service may elect to retire at age sixty-two (62) with 80% of accrued benefits; at age sixty-three (63) with 87% of accrued benefits; or at age sixty-four (64) with 94% of accrued benefits. The rate of benefits shall be determined by:

1. Number of service years as a member of the North Carolina Conference.
2. Support of the conference financial program.
   a. In the event a minister retires because of disability before reaching full retirement age AND has been approved for disability by the Social Security Administration, said minister will receive full benefits for the duration of disability. The rate of retirement benefits shall be based on service years in the conference and support of its financial program. No service years may be added after disability retirement has begun.
   b. Upon retirement, full-time ministers shall receive the current designated amount for full-time ministers as noted in the appendix of this Constitution. In the event a full-time minister reverts to part-time status, full-time service years would be retained. Full-time service years will be interpreted by the administrators and based upon the minister's conference assignment record.
   c. "Full-time" is defined as those years during which a minister is assigned as pastor, full-time pastoral staff or is serving in a full-time General IPHC or conference-elected or appointed position. The administrators reserve the right to grant "full-time" service years for those serving an IPHC or IPHC-affiliated institution.
   d. Upon retirement, part-time ministers (those not defined as "full-time" above), will receive the current designated amount for part-time ministers (as noted in the appendix).

B. Spousal Benefits will be one-half (1/2) the monthly benefit of the deceased minister at the time of death.
   1. Spouse of deceased retired ministers shall receive spousal benefit on a monthly basis beginning the month following the minister's death.
   2. In the event a minister dies prior to retirement, the surviving spouse may request in writing, refund (without interest) of contributions made to retirement fund or elect to begin spousal benefit at age sixty (60) or upon approval for disability by the Social Security Administration. Such written request must be made within ninety (90) days of death. Refund payment shall be made within thirty (30) days of Conference Executive Council's approval. An exception to this is that the Conference Executive Council may deduct any tithes or other funds owed to the North Carolina Conference and/or Ministerial and Church Extension Loan Fund.
   3. In the event a retired minister remarries and then dies, the spouse shall be eligible for retirement benefits at the age of sixty (60) or disability as aforementioned.
   4. Where both husband and wife are ministers, and the husband or wife is deceased, the living spouse will receive spousal benefits. When the living spouse becomes eligible for retirement, said spouse will receive the greater of the two benefits.
   5. Should the spouse of a deceased minister remarry, benefits will cease. If the new spouse should die, said spouse shall be eligible for the restoration of spousal benefits. The recipient must request the restored benefits in writing. Remarriage shall annul this provision.
   6. Should the remarriage of a spouse of a deceased minister end in divorce, the decision regarding restoration of spousal benefits shall be based on guidelines for divorce and remarriage as stated in the IPHC manual.

C. A death benefit of $500.00 shall be paid to the estate of a deceased participating minister or to the surviving spouse.

D. Requirements: Clergy receiving benefits from this Fund shall have paid one-hundred percent (100%) of their tithes, both secular and ministerial, and shall have met the minimum requirement for retirement benefits. This requirement must be met annually. The sentence dealing with tithes is not to conflict with General Conference rulings concerning General Conference Officials and those engaged in Acts2Day Conferences. The Administrators reserve the right to require proof that full tithe was paid. Any year wherein a Minister fails to support the Conference with full tithe and Conference Retirement contributions by February 15 of the following year, that year shall be subtracted from his total years of service and no benefits shall be paid for that year. In addition, his total service years will freeze at that point and no additional years may be earned.

E. If a program recipient is placed into extended care service for health purposes which are covered by Medicaid, his/her benefit payments shall cease. The spouse shall then become eligible to receive 100% of the recipient's benefits until the member's death.

F. This Retired Ministers' Fund and all property therein shall be a separate and distinct corpus not subject to claims of any person, firm or corporation for any obligation, debt or claim. No beneficiary of this program shall have any right to alienate, encumber or appropriate his or her interest in the principal or income of the program in any manner nor shall such interest of any beneficiary be subject to claims of his or her creditors or liable to attachment, execution or other process of the law. Nothing in this paragraph shall be interpreted to prohibit the Conference from deducting sums owed to it by members before paying refunds or benefit payments.

IV. ADMINISTRATION

A. Any qualified member desiring retirement shall submit completed application (available from the Conference Ministry Center) to the Conference Bishop at least thirty (30) days prior to planned retirement date.

B. Any participating minister withdrawing membership or being dismissed from the North Carolina Conference shall be refunded the amount said minister has contributed into the fund without interest. Refund payment shall be made within thirty (30) days of administrator's approval. An exception to this is that the Conference Executive Council may deduct any tithes or other funds owed to the North Carolina Conference or Ministerial and Church Extension Loan Fund.

C. Clergy receiving retirement benefits may be used as an interim pastor without affecting retirement benefit.

D. Retired ministers shall cease to accrue service years at the time of retirement and are no longer required to contribute to the retirement fund, but may choose to do so to bless the fund's continuance.

V. SECONDED CLERGY

A ministerial member of the North Carolina Conference who is seconded to another conference to pastor a church in the International Pentecostal Holiness Church may continue to participate in the North Carolina Conference retirement program by complying with the following:

A. To earn "part-time" retirement benefits for any given year, the seconded minister must:
   1. Contribute $700 to the Retired Ministers Fund of the North Carolina Conference (as noted in the appendix)
   2. "Part-time" is defined in section III.A.2. earlier in this document.

B. "Full-time" is defined in section III.A.2. earlier in this document. To earn "full-time" retirement benefits for any given year, the seconded minister must contribute $1,000.00 per annum, (this minimum is noted in the appendix).

C. When a participating minister chooses to transfer to another IPHC conference, said minister shall be refunded actual contributions without interest. This refund will be a full release by the member of any liability from the Retired Ministers' Fund and no future benefit will be paid.

VI. INVESTMENTS

Administrators are hereby authorized to deposit assets of the Retired Ministers Fund into the Ministerial and Church Extension Loan Fund and/or other financial institutions. Administrators will insure that these funds are not deposited into a financial institution or program that supports businesses which compromise the moral standards of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church.

VII. AMENDMENTS

A. This Constitution shall not be amended or changed in any conference session except in the following manner:
   1. Any proposed change or amendment must be submitted by the Conference Executive Council or a number of persons equal to said Council.
   2. Such a resolution must be preceded by a reading of the Constitution or that portion of the Constitution involved.

3. Further, such reading and such proposed change or amendment must be read in a previous session before a vote is taken on a resolution.
4. Amendments shall require a two-thirds majority vote for adoption.

B. Copies of this Constitution shall be available to all ministers presently in the North Carolina Conference. The requirements of this Constitution are absolutely mandatory. All clergy must comply in order to be eligible for retirement benefits. The proposed amendments of this Constitution shall not be retroactive.

C. With the adoption of this restructuring of the Retired Ministers' Fund (Conference Retirement), all previous Constitutions become invalid.

DEBORAH'S DAUGHTERS

INTRODUCTION AND STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

Deborah's Daughters, originally referred to as Women Ministers, originated in 2002 under the leadership of Bishop Chris Thompson, of the North Carolina Conference of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church. At that time there were 91 women ministers. The organization title evolved to Lady Ministers to eliminate confusion with Women's Ministries. The organization was established with the intent of encouraging, training, and empowering credentialed lady clergy, or those in the credentialing process, to fulfill their destiny in ministry; and to see them rise to their full potential working side by side with men in ministry.

On November 14, 2002 Bishop Chris Thompson appointed the following Lady Ministers to serve as the Women Ministers' Advisory Council:

Name:	Representative For:
Rev. Pauline Knowles	Superannuate Minister
Rev. Wanda Bayles	Pastor
Rev. Dr. Lydia Figueroa	Pastor, NC WIN Director, Hispanic Translator
Rev. Janice Marshburn	Women's Ministries
Rev. Patsy Vaughan	Pastor
Rev. Louise Thompson	Evangelist
Rev. Rose Boyd	Missions

The first Director of Lady Ministers, Rev. Janice Marshburn, was appointed by Bishop Chris Thompson on July 13, 2005 at the Lady Ministers Advisory Council Meeting in Falcon.

On May 30, 2006 Director Marshburn was approved to serve on Bishop Thompson's Strategic Advisory Council (SAC) as a representative for Deborah's Daughters.

The first Assistant Director of the Lady Minister's Advisory Council, Rev. Patsy Vaughan, and the first Secretary, Rev. Louise Thompson, were approved by the NC Conference Board on May 30, 2006.

The first Historian, Rev. Cindy Midyette accepted the appointment on July 16, 2009.

Others who have served on the Council include: Wilda Faircloth, Faye Page Bowden, Betty Rogers, Leonor Powell, and Terri Shaffer.

On March 21, 2007 Bishop Chris Thompson approved the adoption of the Biblical name "Deborah's Daughters" as the official title of the Lady Ministers/Clergy organization of the North Carolina Conference of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church. Deborah's Daughters speaks of all Lady Clergy who are God's chosen mouthpiece for a time when His children need deliverance. She works not above or before, but alongside her male counterparts in building God's Kingdom. Deborah had the faith and Barak had the battle knowledge. She needed him as much as he needed her. Together they stood against the enemy destined for victory (Judges 4)! This truly reflects the heart's desire of The Lady Clergy of the North Carolina Conference of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church - to work together to fulfill our God-given destinies and accomplish more for the Kingdom of God.

On March 20, 2008 the following Mission and Vision Statements were adopted:

MISSION STATEMEMT: "To encourage, support, train and empower women clergy to fulfill their destiny in ministry."

VISION STATEMENT: "See women clergy rise to their full potential."

In December 2012, Deborah's Daughters was expanded to include six Regional Coordinators to promote networking and camaraderie through at least one fellowship meal/activity each year for the lady clergy within their region, and to serve as a liaison between the lady clergy and the Deborah's Daughters Director.

North Carolina Women's Ministries
*2012-2013 DIRECTOR'S REPORT

"Behold, a people! They rise up as a lioness and lift themselves up as a lion; he shall not lie down until he devours the prey and drinks the blood of the slain." Numbers 23:24 The Amplified Bible

In Lisa Bevere's book, Lioness Arising, we find that the lioness rises from her leisurely repose to gather strength, greet and groom others, hunt, work alongside other lionesses, confront enemies that threaten the pride and walk with her king.

As a divine design, she has the capacity to accomplish each act; but, when caged, we find her restless and pacing due to her confinement and inability to go but so far … her inability to run free and be all God created her to be.

Numbers 23:24 convinces me that there is a lioness spirit hidden within every Christian woman. There is a spirit of fierceness: the capacity to impact the lives of those around them, to nurture, to confront the enemy to the point of victory, and to walk in the full calling of the King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

However, for multiple reasons, many women are like the lioness in a cage. Many are restless and trapped with no freedom to be all that God created them to be. The C4 Mission of Women's Ministries challenges us to "create an atmosphere where women can be released into their gifting", and to create an "atmosphere of opportunity" releasing them to minister in the gifts and callings God has on their lives. Knowledge and passion alone are not enough. There must be opportunity. I am appreciative of all the accomplishments during 2012 and 2013, but my challenge for the coming year is that each WM create and identify opportunities for your women to flourish in their God-given gifting. For some, that would involve using their administrative skills. For others, it could be intercessory prayer, staying in touch with missionary families, teaching, equipping, media ministry, fund raising, giving, disaster relief, benevolence (the ability and the disposition to minister loving and compassionate service to suffering and helpless members of the body of Christ), and hospitality (the God-given ability to provide a warm welcome, food, and lodging to members of the body of Christ). For even others, it would involve being an apostle, prophet, evangelist, pastor-teacher. The list is endless. The challenge is that we become what we are called, "ministering women".

I have been blessed to enjoy another year of spiritual opportunities. During 2012 I traveled in excess of 9,000 miles in order to speak for your WM Day services, district rallies, monthly meetings, training sessions, and representing the NCWM at quarterly Discipleship Ministries Board Meetings, Leadership Summits, Sanctity of Human Life Golf Tournament, NC Conference Annual Conference, Feast of Ingathering in SC and GA, Happy Hearts, National Women's Conference, Harvest Train, planning sessions with the NC WIN Board, WIN Conference, Girls' Ministries Retreat, NCWM Retreat, and Teen Talent. As some folk would say "I've kept the road hot."

The incorporation of Women's Ministries under the Discipleship Ministries Department has resulted in several new adventures. One in particular has been exceptionally unforgettable for me...the opportunity to work together with NC Men's Ministries and the Royal Home staff in sponsoring the 2012 Sanctity of Human Life Golf Tournament. The outcome was a contribution of $4,000.00 to Royal Home Ministries resulting in creating an atmosphere where lives could be saved and young mothers protected, nurtured, and mentored.

In addition, The Diamond Experience in Nashville, TN, in November 2012, created an atmosphere of spiritual opportunity to enjoy training, ministry, and the privilege of being a part of a Lady Clergy Discussion Panel with ladies desiring the opportunity to be released in their clerical giftings.

As local WM groups, you created an atmosphere of opportunity for students at Emmanuel, Southwestern Christian University, Holmes Bible College, and Advantage College to be released into their gifting through your contributions to the Feast of Ingathering Offering. Your offerings, including matching funds, were $57,871.05. Our goal was $70,000

You created an atmosphere of opportunity for our missionaries to have a better Christmas by giving $12,004.39 to the Christmas 4 Missionaries Offering. Additionally, you contributed $2,520.25 in support of the Blanche L. King Scholarship Fund to assist the children of our missionaries who attend Pentecostal Holiness colleges. That is over and above the multiple dollars given in support of People to People and missionary sponsorship.

Falcon Children's Home was the recipient of $99,186.00 in cash and $24,569.55 in commodities from the North Carolina Conference through the WM supported Harvest Train. In addition to funds given to Royal Home Ministries during the year by local WM groups, $2,220.00 was given at the 2013 Retreat to support the Marvin and Joyce Whitfield Life Campus which will create an atmosphere of opportunity for lives to be saved and young mothers nurtured and trained.

The NCWM Board expresses gratitude for your remarkable spirit of generosity, and we pray the Lord will reward you fourfold.

The death of former NCWM Secretary/Treasurer Teresa Woodard created a vacancy on the Board. On June 20, 2012, the NC Conference Executive Council approved separating the functions of NCWM Secretary/Treasurer and the appointments of Patsy Deese as Treasurer, and Kathya Gonzalez as Secretary and Bilingual Advisor. The appointments were effective July 1, 2012. Treasurer Deese functions as an outsourced position with no seat or voice on the NCWM Board. We applaud her for her continued service to the NCWM. Secretary Gonzalez assumed an official position with seat and voice.

APPRECIATION:

Thanks to NCWM Board Members ... TERRY BOYETTE, DARNELL NELMS, ELAINE STALLS, and KATHYA GONZALEZ. These ladies truly have a spirit of fierceness when it comes to working together to create an atmosphere of opportunity for ladies on the local church level to be trained and empowered to make a difference in their home, church and community. I appreciate them for the individual and collective contributions they make. Together we are a blend of different personalities and perspectives focused on the mission. Thank you ladies for your dedication. You truly are amazing!

Thanks to the NCWM 2012 Next Generation Leader ... AMANDA CLOWERS. Amanda hit the ground running, impacting lives at every turn. She served like a pro with a spirit of zeal and enthusiasm. On January 1, 2013 Amanda released the reins to the NCWM 2013 Next Generation Leader CINDY GARNER. Cindy joined the team with her sleeves rolled up and ready to work. These two amazing young women have and are creating an atmosphere of opportunity and encouragement for others in their age group to become a part of Women's Ministries. We need and appreciate them!

Thanks to MAVIS BLAND and PATSY DEESE ... With a united determination these ladies continue to encourage each local WM group to create an atmosphere of opportunity for widows within their congregations to connect with other widows through the Forever Loved Ministry with the primary purposes of support and comradeship. It is with sincerity of heart that we thank you for encouraging us to fulfill the command of First Timothy 5 to honor widows who are widows indeed.

Thanks to NC Girls' Ministries Board ... LYDIA MILLS and her leadership team, JOAN ROBINSON, DEBRA COLLINS, and WANDA OATES. With great tenacity, this exceptional team creates an atmosphere of opportunity for the GM local leaders to be equipped for ministry, as well as the girls of our local groups to be introduced to Jesus and trained to follow Him. We extend a special welcome to Joan Robinson who joined the team on July 1, 2012, filling the position as Secretary/Treasurer. Together these ladies make a positive impact by providing extraordinary training and events.

Thanks to NCWM Happy Hearts Director BLANCHE POLLARD and her team JANICE LUCAS, JUANTIA RUSSELL, MARY BELLE JOHNSON, AND JEAN GORE … Biannually this team does an excellent job of creating an atmosphere of opportunity for entertainment and camaraderie for our more mature constituents as they gather for their regional meetings. To the HAPPY HEARTS participants, we express our appreciation for your continued service at the local level as you minister to your church, community, and underprivileged children by making and donating Christmas stockings to various churches including Metro Ministries in New York.

Thanks to NC Past Presidents/Directors DOLLIE DAVENPORT, JEAN WILLIAMS, SUE PARKER, FAYE LEGGETT, MARY BELLE JOHNSON, LINDA THOMAS, and PATSY DEESE … A special love for Women's Ministries still burns in the hearts of these special women. They lovingly offer an atmosphere of opportunity for me to lean on their shoulders and draw from their invaluable wisdom. They are true mentors who still have much to offer.

Thanks to NCWM District Directors DEANNA BARNEY, JANICE MOON, LARUE TART, BRENDA PHILLIPS, MAVIS BLAND, DEBBIE FLOWERS, CAROL DAVIS, SANDY BORRELL, JOHNNA BULLOCK, JACKIE THOMPSON and FAYE JONES … With enthusiasm these ladies not only serve as a liaison between the NCWM Board and local groups through mail outs, facebook, emails, district rallies, and visitations within their district, but they also give of their personal time and resources to assist us with training events, the retreat and convention. They were truly created in the likeness and image of God!

Thanks to NCWM Historian MEDIA LEE … With a loving face behind the camera Media creates an opportunity for us to forever remember all the wonderful activities and opportunities of ministry. Her faithfulness is being documented in the permanent records of heaven.

Thanks to Discipleship Ministries Director JON OLIVER and Secretary/Bookkeeper NICOLE OLIVER … Director Oliver is ever available to offer input and assistance. With speed and attention to detail Nicole assists me with my email publications. Their aid is most welcomed!

Thanks to BISHOP JIMMY WHITFIELD … With a vote of confidence, Bishop Whitfield has created an atmosphere for me to be released in my gifting. His support of NCWM is evident in advice given and participation in our activities.

Thanks to Our FIRST LADY REGENIA WHITFIELD … In her quiet, loving manner Mrs. Regenia creates an atmosphere of opportunity for our minister's wives and lady clergy to connect to share experiences and needs. With every encounter, she offers a listening ear and loving touch.

Thanks to all the RDC PERSONNEL … Assistance is offered with each phone call or email.

Thanks to our faithful PRAYER TEAM … Your prayerful support has taken place morning, noon and night from your homes and at each event as you sought for the Holy Spirit's direction and anointing.

Thanks to my husband GARY … He creates an atmosphere for me to be released in my gifting as he gives of his time to proof-read, runs errands, stuff and stamp envelopes, chauffeur me, offer prayerful support, and so on and so on.

Thanks to EACH OF YOU amazing women on the local level … You are of a divine design with the capacity to positively impact those within your sphere of influence. I challenge you to arise and walk in your calling knowing your prayers, words of love, and participation on the local and Conference level are not overlooked. I pray with you that during this coming year doors of opportunity will open for you to minister in your area of gifting. But until they do ... praise Him in the hallway.

Serving in full view of the Lord,

Janice

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
MINUTES OF 2013 CONVENTION
"THE DIAMOND EXPERIENCE"

"...and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee."
(Isaiah 60:1b)

The Sixty-Ninth North Carolina Women's Ministries Convention was held on June 1, 2013, in Falcon, NC, in the J.A. Culbreth Auditorium. The event was entitled "The Diamond Experience" in recognition of the value of our amazing women.

Registration began at 8:00 a.m. in the auditorium foyer with the NCWM District Directors serving as Registrars. Local Women's Ministries groups and other Conference Ministries had "Show and Sell" displays along the sides of the auditorium floor. A prelude of music was provided by Terry Boyette, NCWM Assistant Director.

Creating an Atmosphere of Merriment

NCWM Director Janice Marshburn welcomed the ladies to the Convention. Discipleship Ministries Director Rev. Jon Oliver greeted the ladies and introduced Terry Whittington who created an atmosphere of merriment. Terry did an outstanding job bringing laughter to those ladies present.

Creating an Atmosphere of Worship

Director Marshburn offered an invocation from Malachi 3:17 reminding the ladies that, as redeemed saints of God, they are treasures and not trinkets. She challenged them from Isaiah 60:1 to arise and turn their face to the Sonlight and shine for the Light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon them. Elizabeth Griffin from the Smyrna Pentecostal Holiness Church ministered a pantomime to the song "Shackles" prior to our speaker.

Terry Boyette introduced the speaker, Mrs. Dawn Jackson Briley, daughter of Rev. Paul Jackson. Dawn ministered in song before sharing how the Lord delivered the Hebrew children in and out of the wilderness. Her message came from Jeremiah 29:11 "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." She encouraged the ladies with the assurance that God does give you the desires of your heart. She shared her testimony of how God had brought her through many toils and snares and of His protection for her and her daughter. She told of how, after a twenty-one day Daniel fast, she saw God intervene, and she recognized time spent waiting on God is not wasted. Her testimony was witness that we serve an awesome God, and there is nothing He doesn't know. She said she learned that your misery can become your ministry. She held on to Jeremiah 33:3, "Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and show thee great and mighty things..." as her promise from God. Dawn ended her message with the powerful song "I'm Gonna Make It." Her testimony brought blessings and encouragement to the ladies.

Creating an Atmosphere for Fellowship

The ladies enjoyed a twenty-minute break. This gave them the opportunity to fellowship, enjoy light refreshments provided by NCWM and visit the Ministry Centers.

Creating an Atmosphere for Business

NCWM Director Janice Marshburn called the business session to order. Bishop Jimmy Whitfield addressed the ladies encouraging them as leaders to "revitalize" their local groups. Director Marshburn gave special recognition to visitors from sister denominations and representatives from various Pentecostal Holiness sponsored institutions. Delegation from the Emmanuel PH Church WM was recognized for faithfulness in attendance although their local WM Director Ms. Eva Waters had recently died.

Director Marshburn presented her written report from 2012-2013 which is included in the NCWM Annual Report Booklet. This same report will be included in the 2013 North Carolina Conference IPHC Minutes.

NCWM Board Member Darnell Nelms, whose portfolio is Education, expressed appreciation to the ladies for their contributions of $57,871.05 to the 2012 Feast of Ingathering Offering. A DVD was presented featuring Holmes Bible College. Lynn Huhn, a representative from Emmanuel College thanked the ladies for supporting FOI and shared a brief report pertaining to the college.

Janice Marshburn and Darnell Nelms awarded Emmanuel Scholarships in the amount of $1,950.00 to the following students: Jennie Gardner, Jenna Aycock, Michael Callicutt, Roslin Balla, Janene Wooten, David Pagan, Christopher Leonard, Willy Abasson and Stephanie Canady. Jennie Gardner was in attendance and spoke appreciation to the ladies for their financial contributions making the scholarships possible.

Director Marshburn expressed appreciation for generous support provided for the Christmas 4 Missionaries, Blanche L. King Scholarship Fund, People to People, missionary sponsorship, Falcon Children's Home and Royal Home Ministries. She also thanked the ladies for their gift of $2,220 given at the 2013 Retreat in support of the Marvin and Joyce Whitfield Life Campus which will be a place of opportunity for lives to be saved and young mothers to be nurtured and trained.

NCWM Board Member Elaine Stalls shared information pertaining to her portfolios of DRUSA and Benevolence. She encouraged the ladies to participate in the upcoming Sanctity of Human Life Golf Tournament scheduled for June 28. The Golf Tournament is a joint effort of NC Men's Ministries, DRUSA, NC Women's Ministries, NC Girls' Ministries and the Royal Home. The ladies were given an opportunity to provide monetary support as well as commodities for the recent tornado victims in Oklahoma.

Oral reports and expressions of appreciation for various portfolios and leadership positions were communicated at the NCWM Leadership Training in February, including those by the NC Girls' Ministries. Therefore, recognition by simply standing was given at the NCWM Convention. Director Marshburn announced the resignation of NC Girls' Ministries Assistant Director Debra Collins effective June 30, 2013, and expressed special appreciation for her years of service.

Director Marshburn presented Awards of Achievement to churches earning special recognition.

Melanie Ross from the Holly Hill Pentecostal Holiness Church WM presented the Memoirs Report.

The business session was concluded with closing remarks and benediction by Director Marshburn.

Respectfully Submitted,
Kathya Gonzalez, NCWM Secretary

Enlarge the place of your tent, And let them stretch out the curtains of your dwellings; Do not spare; Lengthen your cords, And strengthen your stakes.

For you shall expand to the right and to the left, And your descendants will inherit the nations, And make the desolate cities inhabited.

Isaiah 54:2, 3 NKJV
